

JAPANESE WAITING FOR FALL OF PORT ARTHUR

SMITH AROUSES INTEREST.

Leading Republicans Warmly Endorse Him for Elector.

Many Citizens Express Their Pleasure at His Candidacy.

The suggestion that the name of Frank M. Smith be placed on the Republican Electoral ticket has been received with enthusiasm and general satisfaction. It is universally conceded that no more fitting and representative candidate can be found. An active canvass for the nomination of Mr. Smith has already begun, and the enthusiasm in his behalf has already become contagious.

Many prominent Republicans have expressed themselves as heartily in favor of nominating Mr. Smith on the ground that he will give dignity and character to the ticket.

HENRY T. JONES. "No better man could be named," said Henry T. Jones, Assessor of Contra Costa county. "Mr. Smith is one of the foremost citizens of the State, a man of unblemished character, and a citizen who is an ornament to any community."

SUPERVISOR STOW. "No fault can be found with Mr. Smith," said J. M. Stow, Supervisor of Contra Costa county. "His name on the Electoral ticket will be one to conjure with. It stands for energy, enterprise and business sagacity. He represents the best that is in the Republican party."

SUPERIOR JUDGE WELLS. "Mr. Smith will make an admirable candidate for Elector," said Superior Judge Wells of Contra Costa county. "He is a progressive citizen of the best type, identified with the material interests of the State and particularly with this district in a way to commend himself to all intelligent men. He represents the solid worth of the community."

SENATOR KNOWLAND. "I am heartily in favor of Mr. Smith for Elector," said Senator Joseph R. Knowland of Alameda. "A more representative citizen and Republican cannot be named. I think the delegates from Alameda will be unanimous in his favor, for he is highly esteemed for business enterprise and progressive spirit."

W. G. PALMATEER. "Mr. Smith is too well known in this community to need any encomiums," said W. G. Palmateer of the Central Bank. "He is the kind of a capitalist that builds up cities and aids in making them prosperous. He deserves stands high."

CHARLES E. SNOOK. Charles E. Snook—F. M. Smith is a very able man and has done a great deal for the city and county. He represents a very progressive spirit.

ASSESSOR DALTON. "Mr. Smith ought to go on the electoral ticket," said Assessor Henry P. Dalton. "He represents large interests and such men should take an active part in politics. He is progressive, enterprising and public-spirited—a builder and a captain of industry. He has contributed immensely to the recent development of Alameda county. He is entitled to honor and the Republican party will do itself credit by placing his name on its ticket."

DISTRICT ATTORNEY ALLEN. District Attorney J. J. Allen—F. M. Smith is a good representative man and would be all right as an elector.

GEORGE D. METCALF. George D. Metcalf—F. M. Smith would be first-class for elector. He would be an excellent representative of the town and the county.

JUDGE SMITH. Judge Mortimer Smith—Republican electors should be men of high standing, of success in life and of unimpeachable integrity. F. M. Smith satisfies all these requirements. Indeed, he does so in an exceeding degree.

I. L. REQUA. Isaac L. Requa, president of the Oakland Bank of Savings—F. M. Smith is just the man for elector on the Republican ticket.

BATTLE IS IN PROGRESS

Japanese and Russians Are Fighting in the Field.

Mikado's Men Are Pushing Advance With Great Vigor.

ST. PETERSBURG, August 4.—A rumor is current that a battle is in progress north of Hai Chong.

LONDON, August 4.—A dispatch by a news agency from Amoy, half way between Hualong and Idao Yank, says: "The Japanese advance is being continued with great energy against the Southern army. The Russian main forces continue their retirement northward, but the cavalry has checked the Japanese threatening flank movement."

OKU ON THE MOVE.

WASHINGTON, August 4.—The Japanese Legation today received the following cablegram from Tokyo: General Oku reports that the army is retreating northward continually since August 1. On August 3 our army occupied Hai Cheng and New Chwang, situated thirty miles northeast of the open port of the same name.

RUSS HOLIDAY

ST. PETERSBURG, August 4.—This being the Saint Day of the Dowager Empress, a general holiday was observed throughout Russia.

TAKEN FOR SPY.

NEW CHWANG, August 4.—The French consular agent, Albert Kreuch, was arrested last night in a Russian house, where he was mistaken for a spy. After a short detention he was released.

GONE TO FIELD

NEW CHWANG, August 4.—Field Marshal Oyama, commander-in-chief of the Japanese forces in Manchuria, and Gen. Kodama, chief of staff, left Kailien yesterday and have established headquarters in the field with the army.

DRIVEN BACK.

TOKIO, August 4, 10 a. m.—Twelve torpedo boats, four torpedoes and some gunboats emerged from the harbor at Port Arthur on the night of August 1st, but were driven back again by the Japanese warship on guard outside.

KUROKI'S ADVANCE

NEW CHWANG, August 4.—General Kuroki, with one hundred thousand men, is now behind the Russian forces. General Oku with an army of fifty thousand men is on their front, while flanking them on the left is General Nodzu with his division of 50,000 men.

If General Kuroki is defeated in this battle he must either move westward or surrender.

The foreign military attaches are with the second army on route for the front to witness the battle.

Japanese troop ships are expected here tomorrow.

The Russian troops at Port Arthur have been driven back to the last line of their defenses. The Japanese attacking force has 350 guns in action.

TOOK HIS LIFE.

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia., August 4.—Driven insane by the butchers' strike, Alfred Day, meat inspector for the packing house here, committed suicide by hanging. Day's hallucination was that the strike had extended to Cedar Rapids and that his life was endangered.

BOLTERS MEET. TOPEKA, Kan., August 4.—Less than a score of bolting Populists gathered today to discuss the advisability of placing a ticket in the field. It was agreed to disband and allow every man to vote as he pleases.

CHILD TERRIBLY BURNED.

Tried to Start a Fire With a Can of Kerosene.

Ran Down the Street With Her Clothing on Fire.

While trying to start a fire with kerosene this morning, Rosie Muskvitch, a child 12 years of age, was terribly burned and it is feared her life is in great danger. She lives with her parents at 269 Fourth street and was going to make some soup for her mother, who is ill, when the accident happened. The father is a peddler and leaves home every morning to go out through the country and only the child and her mother were at home.

As nearly as can be ascertained the child went to the stove, taking with her a can of oil. A few minutes later an explosion was heard as if a pistol had been fired and the screams of the child were heard. Instead of running into the room where her mother lay she ran out into the street, and to her presence of mind in this regard she probably owes her life and that of her mother as well. A boy delivering meat, whose name was not ascertained, was passing at the time, and jumping off his wagon, tore the burning clothes from the child, who had fallen senseless in the street. Her legs and hands were terribly burned but the fire had not penetrated the upper part of her clothing. Dr. E. R. Jordan was telephoned for and the child was in so serious a condition that he said she would have to be removed to a hospital, and she was taken to a private hospital at Thirteenth and Grove streets.

Mrs. Muskvitch, who has been ill for some time, is in such a condition that she is hardly able to talk, and neighbors are keeping watch over her until her husband's return from his trip through the country. The can was found in the kitchen, a distorted piece of tin and had evidently exploded and scattered the oil over the dress of the girl. There was a little of the oil burning on the floor of the kitchen but not enough to threaten the residence. Most of it must have gone on the girl's clothing. By the child running out of the house the building was saved.

C. J. Renken did good work in saving the child's life.

SURVIVORS ARE IN PORT.

TELL ABOUT THE SINKING OF THE HIPSANG IN ORIENT.

CHE FOO, August 4 (8 p. m.).—Twenty-one survivors of the British steamer Hipsang, which was sunk by a Russian torpedo-boat in Pigeon bay on July 15, arrived here today on board the German steamer Bulburg. Among the survivors are three Europeans. They state that Wolf Hill fort was taken by the Japanese army before Port Arthur on July 28. When the Hipsang commenced to sink the Chinese on board rushed for the boats and the Europeans were compelled to swim. Finally they were rescued by the torpedo-boat and were confined until August 2 at Port Arthur, when they were ordered to leave in a junk which was provided for them. After embarking on August 2 the junk was picked up by a Japanese torpedo-boat, which offered to tow them to Chefoo. Admiral Togo's flagship, however, signalled a refusal and the junk proceeded alone. Later the refugees were taken on board of the German steamer Bulburg, which reached port today.

WILL INVESTIGATE.

BERLIN, Aug. 4.—The German government has instituted an investigation into all the circumstances connected with the sinking of the German steamer Thea by the Vladivostok squadron off the coast of Japan preparatory to making representations to the Japanese and the extensive use of the larger engines of war with which to clear the way.

ESOPUS, N. Y., August 4.—Many political visitors have appointments to visit Rosemont today. They include United States Senator Bailey of Texas, Governor Montague of Virginia, National Committeeman Clayton and L. E. Russell of Alabama and Charles R. Crane of Chicago.

THE ACTION AT WA-FANG-KAU: THE RETREAT OF THE RUSSIANS BEFORE THE JAPANESE.

JAPANESE WAIT FOR VICTORY.

Hope to Hear News of the Fall of Port Arthur.

TOKIO, August 4.—The Japanese are hourly awaiting tidings of a victory at Port Arthur. It is more interest and eagerness than heretofore displayed. From a political standpoint, the possession of the Russian fortress and naval base is considered of paramount importance by the Japanese. It is known that the Japanese noose about the besieged city is gradually tightening. The Japanese guns are pouring fire into the diminish circle and it is felt here that the critical hour is fast approaching. But the public here is ignorant of the hour when the final assault will be made and also of the details of the work already done around Port Arthur.

It is believed that the fire from the Japanese batteries will compel the Russian fleet to leave the harbor and accept battle from Admiral Togo. It is becoming proverbial that the Japanese infantry will go anywhere and will refuse to retire to matter how great their losses may be. It is believed that Port Arthur could have been taken before this time with a heavy sacrifice of life, but it is evident that the military leaders are working to effect the reduction and capture of the fortress with the minimum loss of life. There will be no charges of great masses of infantry until the artillery has finished the task of silencing the Russian guns.

AT ROSEMOUNT.

NEW YORK, August 4.—The telegraph line between Irkutsk and Peking has been restored, according to advices received today by the Commercial Cable Company.

PLANS OF RUSSIAN FORCES.

Hope to Hear News of Kuropatkin Will Probably Be Glad to Escape.

ST. PETERSBURG, August 4, 3:20 p. m.—General Kuropatkin's official details of the fighting July 31st at Simoucheung say that only a division and a half were engaged. The report does not mention the loss of guns, neither was Lieutenant-General Alexieff in command as stated in the dispatch from Tokyo yesterday. General Alexieff, who commands the Fifth Army Siberian division of General Stakeberg's corps, was posted on the other side of Hai Cheng July 31st. The War Office does not intend to publish the name of the actual commander at Simoucheung for reasons of military expediency.

The War Office does not expect the Japanese to resume their advance for several days. Now they are probably again preparing for a flanking movement on a large scale and possibly awaiting the marching up of a strong column from New Chwang. The failure of the Japanese to follow up their success is evidently the cause of great satisfaction to the general staff here. Whether this feeling is due to the fact that the delay will give General Kuropatkin breathing space and enable him to arrange his concentrated dispositions for the coming battle, or because it will allow him the requisite time to effect his withdrawal northward is, of course, unknown, the general staff not even admitting that the commander-in-chief is contemplating escape.

AUTO PARTY ROBBED.

BOSTON, August 4.—A party of four in an automobile was held up yesterday at Willow Grove, a resort near here. The highwayman secured about $1000 in money and jewelry. The victims were A. G. Hall, Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Arthur L. Jackson and Mrs. Thomas C. Walton, all of New York. The highwayman rode a motor cycle.

WANT LUMBER QUICK.

WASHINGTON, August 4.—A hurry call for 2,000,000 feet of lumber, mostly cypress, and 40,000 pieces of pling was received by Secretary Murphy of the Panama Canal Commission today from the isthmus.

The lumber is to be used in repairing old and constructing new buildings and the piling for canal construction.

UNCLE SAM IS WINNER.

Why the Government Likes the Hawaiian Islands.

SACRAMENTO, August 4.—In an interview, Governor G. C. Carter of the Hawaiian Islands says in the Bee: "The annexation of the islands to the United States has not been a commercial success, so far as the islands are concerned. Since we have been United States territory we have not made great progress. One reason for this is because the laws that we are governed by are not suited to the country. In the old days, when we made our own laws, the statutes fitted the needs of the islands. Now we are under the United States laws, which may suit the country as a whole, and may suit many of the States in particular, but they do not answer our requirements."

"For instance, we have to obey the United States land laws and cannot rent Government land for a period of more than five years at a time. As it takes from two to four years to raise a crop in our climate, we cannot find anybody that will rent land for such a short period as five years. Thus we are deprived of a big income from Government land."

"Since we have been annexed Congress has never dredged our harbor. It is filling up and thus prevents the landing of the largest ocean vessels. As a result of this our traffic is falling off. We dredged the harbor at our own expense since we have been annexed, but unless it is dredged again we will lose much of our traffic."

"Annexation has cut off all of our income from the internal revenue. On the other hand, from Uncle Sam's point of view, the annexation has been a decided success. Over $4,250,000 has been cleared up and paid into the United States treasury from the islands. The whole cost of annexation was only $1,000,000, so you can see what a paying proposition the islands have been to the United States."

"Since I have been Governor of the islands I have found that our income has been so greatly reduced that it has been necessary for me to cut down all of our appropriations in order to keep our expenditures within our income."

TICKET COMPLETED. TOPEKA, Kas., August 4.—The Democratic State Convention today completed the ticket by naming S. Hallen of Topeka and M. B. Nicholson, of Council Grove, for Justices of the Supreme Court.

SOLDIERS THROW STONES.

Port Au Prince in a State of Great Disorder.

PORT AU PRINCE, Hayti, August 4.—The city of Port au Prince is in a state of great disorder. Bands of soldiers, throwing stones, prevent the Syrian from repairing their stores. American citizens have hoisted the Stars and Stripes over their residences and a number of them have sought refuge in the American Legation, driving there in carriages flying the American flag and pursued by the populace throwing stones. Owing to the energetic remonstrance of the diplomatic corps, the Government has decided to take measures to protect the peaceable inhabitants and strong patrols of police have been sent to protect the Syrian stores.

WATER SUPPLY.

WASHINGTON, August 4.—Major J. P. Case, city engineer of Manila, has laid before the Secretary of War and Col. Edwards, Chief of the Bureau of Insular Affairs, plans for the proposed water supply and sewage system for Manila. The new water supply will be brought to the city of Manila by gravity through a pipe line from the heights at the head of the Marikina valley, a distance of sixteen miles, at a cost of $2,600,000.

Major Case's plans have the approval of the Secretary of War and steps are now being taken looking to the letting of contracts. An issue of bonds to meet the cost to be incurred has been authorized.

NEW TREASURY BILLS.

WASHINGTON, August 4.—The Japanese Consul-General at New York has received a cablegram from the Department of Finance, at Tokio, stating that the government has issued treasury bills to the amount of 10,000,000 yen, payable December 15th.

A LETTER TO OUR READERS

53 Cottage St., Melrose, Mass.
Jan. 11, 1904.

Dear Sir:

Ever since I was in the Army, I had more or less kidney trouble, and within the past year it became so severe and complicated that I suffered everything and was much alarmed—my strength and power was fast leaving me. I saw an advertisement of Swamp-Root and wrote asking for advice. I began the use of the medicine and noted a decided improvement after taking Swamp-Root only a short time.

I continued its use and am thankful to say that I am entirely cured and strong. In order to be very sure about this, I had a doctor examine some of my water today and he pronounced it all right and in splendid condition. I know that your Swamp-Root is purely vegetable and does not contain any harmful drugs. Thanking you for my complete recovery and recommending Swamp-Root to all sufferers, I am,

Very truly yours,
"J. C. RICHARDSON."

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, sent absolutely free by mail, also a book telling all about Swamp-Root. If you are already convinced, you can purchase the regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles at the drug stores everywhere. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Birmingham, N. Y., on every bottle.

PRAYERS LEAD HIM TO JAIL.

MANUEL SILVA HEAPS IMPRESSIONS ON WOMAN AND IS ARRESTED.

The prayers uttered by Manuel Silva at the home of Mrs. Annie Rogers 1015 East Fourteenth street, a week ago, convicted him in the Police Court this morning of disturbing the peace. Two of them were of a powerful kind. Two of his benedictions, says Manuel, did him all at the feet of Mrs. Rogers. Instead of having the welfare of the woman to whom his supplication was addressed at heart, Manuel was praying for her ruin in picturesque Italian he sought to "imprecations and by conjury to bring down upon the head of Mrs. Rogers a thousand malignant things. His impetuous pleading was answered very differently from the way he expected. A policeman and told him of the curse which Manuel was trying to fasten on her. The policeman placed the offender under arrest and Police Judge Samuel this morning found him guilty of disturbing the peace and fined him $10 with the alternative of five days in jail.

Mrs. Rogers hastened to a policeman and told him of the curse which Manuel was trying to fasten on her. The policeman placed the offender under arrest and Police Judge Samuel this morning found him guilty of disturbing the peace and fined him $10 with the alternative of five days in jail.

Mrs. Rogers claimed that her guest owed her $20. He denied it. He called at a time when there was no man at Mrs. Rogers' home and after abusing and before her daughters, Mary Coste, and Rose Alden, he fell upon his knees and prayed that curse might fall on her.

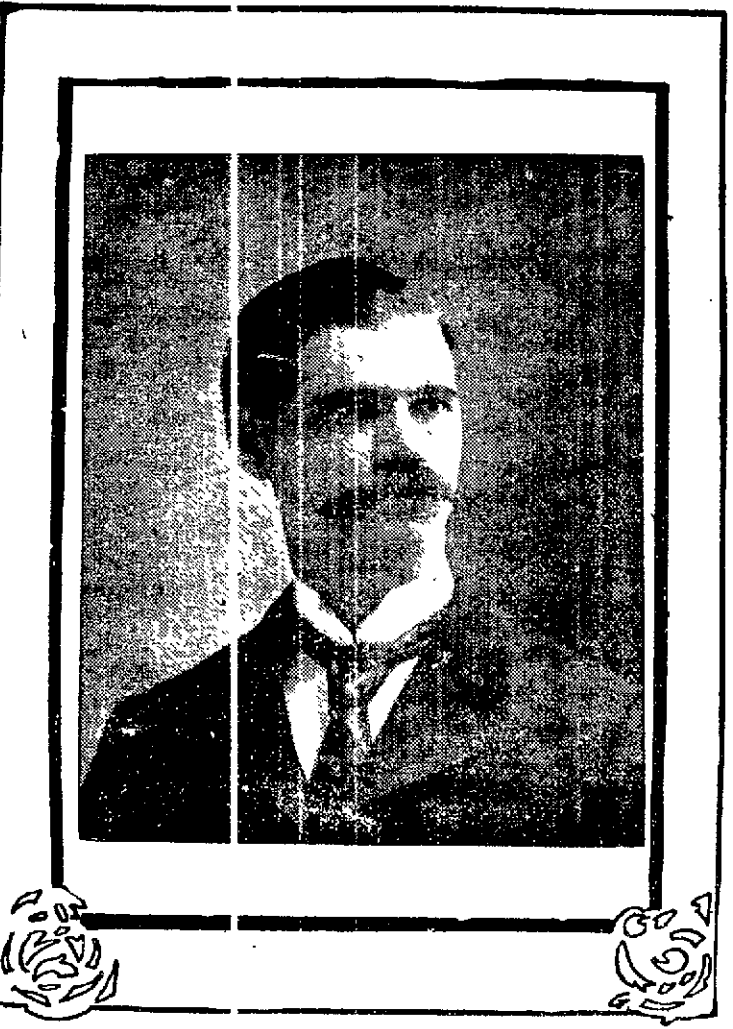

MAX MARCUSE IS OUT AGAIN.

Max Marcuse, who has been in for a long time, was able to be down today. He has been ill for a long time and once his life was despaired of. He is being congratulated by his friends today over his recovery.

CANDIDATES FOR SUPERVISOR OF THE FIFTH DISTRICT.

SUPERVISOR JOHN MITCHELL.

GEORGE E. RANDOLPH.

One of the liveliest fights of this campaign is the contest now on between Supervisor John Mitchell and George E. Randolph for the Republican Supervisorial nomination in the Fifth district. Photographs of the candidates appear above.

He is one of the best men that could be chosen to represent the Republicans of Alameda county on the electoral ticket. He is a staunch Republican, is known throughout the State and is a man of integrity.

GEORGE W. REED.

George W. Reed—F. M. Smith is presently qualified for the position of elector. His place upon the ticket would give it added strength and dignity. The electors should be above faction and Mr. Smith represents the whole party.

JUDITH YULE.

Judge John Yule—I am in favor of F. M. Smith by all means. He is one of the best men for the place. He is enterprising, patriotic and liberal, and it seems to me would commend himself to all classes.

E. A. HERON.

E. A. Heron—The selection of F. M. Smith as elector, would be an excellent one indeed.

W. R. DAVIS.

W. R. Davis—The suggestion of the name of F. M. Smith as Republican Presidential elector meets with my hearty approval. I think his nomination would be a proper recognition of the activity, enterprise and generosity of the highest degree exhibited by him in this community for several years.

FRANK A. LEACH.

F. A. Leach, Superintendent United States Mint, San Francisco—It would be an excellent choice and would be a very nice way in which to show appreciation of the public spirit which Mr. Smith has displayed here for a number of years.

EDWIN STEARNS.

Edwin Stearns, Secretary Board of Trade—F. M. Smith would be a honor to the position of elector. He is a staunch Republican, and a successful man of business and a representative citizen of the highest order. He belongs to the party as a whole and not to any clique or faction of it. He has been in a factional fight, and, as a consequence, can have aroused no antagonism which otherwise might be arrayed against him in an instance. It would be creditable to Oakland to be well represented among the electors and especially by such a man as F. M. Smith.

able to Oakland to be well represented among the electors and especially by such a man as F. M. Smith.

SOL. KAHN.

Sol. Kahn, of Kahn Brothers—Why certainly F. M. Smith as Republican Presidential elector would be perfectly acceptable to everybody in this city. He is known to every person by reason of his energy, liberality and success in business life. He would be a credit to Oakland and the people in it.

L. H. BRIGGS.

L. H. Briggs—F. M. Smith is a good man and a square man and would be an excellent man for the position of elector. He is not much in politics, but that makes no difference. The Republican party is strong enough to carry anything. He is not only a good citizen but a progressive one.

CHARLES SPEAR.

Charles Spear, President Board of Harbor Commissioners—F. M. Smith is a representative citizen of California. As far as I can see he would make an excellent elector on the Republican ticket. I see no objection to him, and I would be pleased to see his name on our ticket. He is a progressive citizen, who has not only worked hard for Oakland and Alameda county, but has done much for the State at large.

M. C. CHAPMAN.

M. C. Chapman—I think he would be satisfactory for the position of elector.

J. C. McMULLEN.

J. C. McMullen, President State Savings Bank—I'm very much in favor of Mr. F. M. Smith for Republican elector. He is just the man for the place and I think we ought to give it to him.

A. L. STONE.

A. L. Stone—I think he would be a fine selection. I feel that it is a compliment due him because of what he has done for Oakland.

MAX MARCUSE.

Max Marcuse—F. M. Smith is certainly a good man. I don't see the possibility of any objection to a man like him.

E. M. GIBSON.

E. M. Gibson—F. M. Smith is a good man. He is a very progressive man. He is a good business man. I think he would be a very wise selection. He has done more for Oakland than almost any man. I think we ought to honor him with this place.

WAS A WALKING OPIUM JOINT.

Harry Smith, who was arrested yesterday for drunkenness and who represented a walking opium joint, was today given the limit on a charge of drunkenness by Police Judge Samuel. He was ordered confined for a period of fifty days in the City Prison.

When arrested Smith had enough opium on him to comfortably put to sleep all of the inmates of the prison. The drug was found in his shoes, hat and other portions of his clothing.

UNION LABOR PARTY.

The approaching campaign finds the Union Labor party in action. The trouble in the County Committee of the party having been settled, all members have got down in earnest and anxious work for the success of its nominees.

Last March the Alameda Union Labor party Central League was organized and now has a membership of 5500 members. The object of this organization is to promote union labor interests generally in and out of campaign. To keep alive interest between election and to see that the party is in an organized condition.

A branch league is established in each Assembly district and these branches meet weekly. The Central League also meets once a week. The officers of the Central League are: A. C. C. Krueger, president, and E. J. Gilve, secretary.

There are numerous candidates for Legislative and Supervisorial nomination. As the primary election and convention are close at hand interest is becoming lively and the other parties are anxiously watching developments.

PEACE COMES AT LAST.

Water Front Litigation Compromised After a Long Contest.

The sale of water front property in the vicinity of First and Webster streets by the heirs of the late James P. Danerow, Willard C. Doane and W. J. Parsons to Charles H. Holbrook Jr., of San Francisco for $10,000 was confirmed by Judge Melvin this morning. The sale is the outcome of twenty years of litigation between the different heirs, which finally resulted in a compromise being effected and the land sold. The money is to be divided between nineteen different heirs to the property.

FEES ARE ALLOWED.

J. B. Larktree, who acted as referee in the sale of the property was allowed the sum of $150 as his fee. The firm of Bishop, Wheeler & Horton and W. H. Orrick, attorneys, were allowed $2000 for straightening out the title to the property in question and a statement was made in court that it was the first time that a clear title of the land had ever been made that was satisfactory to institutions such as the Farmers' Bank, Judge Aylett R. Cotton and William Rutherford will receive their compensation as attorneys for some of the parties interested in sale from their clients.

HAD SQUATTERS' TITLE.

The property in question was settled upon in 1848 by the late James P. Danerow, who maintained a squatter's title to it up to the present time. Squatters were established there by Willard C. Doane. The Oakland Water Front Company made numerous attempts to get possession of the land and a compromise was finally arrived at. A part of the property consists of the old wharf which was used by former Mayor John L. Davis when he was operating a ferry in opposition to the Southern Pacific and at one time held possession of it by the city. The property is said to be now to be improved. A new wharf is to be built and tolls charged. The land is owned by the heirs of the late James P. Danerow, J. M. Holbrook's son and the Oregon Coal and Navigation Company.

RUSSELL SAGE CELEBRATES.

GOES TO HIS OFFICE AS USUAL ON HIS EIGHTY-EIGHTH BIRTHDAY.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—Russell Sage is celebrating his eighty-eighth birthday today by working as usual. He was at his office for an hour yesterday and went through a mass of business, then drove home and did not return.

"I'm getting so I don't like to say things to be put in the papers," said he. "Mrs. Sage doesn't like to have me talk so much."

The dean of financiers then turned to the work that has absorbed all his energies for the last seventy years. The clock went on grinding out interest on his millions, and he is happy to see the clock strike out of his office on the arm of an attendant who always accompanies him on weekdays.

Mr. Sage is looking better than he did a year ago and is enjoying vigorous health. He lives much in the past, however, and cares little for new enterprises. Of late it has been his practice to keep a selected list of stocks which he will accept as collateral. They are principally the same ones, his favorite being Manhattan and St. Paul. There may be other newer issues as safe, but Sage will not accept any stock except those he has known all about for generations.

However, Mr. Sage is not inclined to take doubtful issues. Steel stock common is one of the issues he accepted for a while but that time has long since passed, however, being forced to substitute other securities.

It is expected that many congratulations will come to him today, but the crowds that flock to pay him compliments will not interfere greatly with the crowds that come to pay him interest.

AGENT TOOK THE MONEY.

Dr. Frank Adams Wants Insurance Company to Pay.

For failure to turn over to the Minnesota Mutual Life Insurance Company a premium of $475 received from Dr. Frank Adams, N. A. Brown, the resident representative of the company here, was arrested at Stockton yesterday by Chief of Police W. L. Walker of that city on a charge of embezzlement sworn to by Joseph Peters of San Francisco, the manager of the company on this coast. He was taken before Justice of the Peace Quinn this morning and admitted to bail in the sum of $2000.

According to a statement made to the District Attorney, Brown got Dr. Adams to take out a policy for $10,000 and was paid the premium of $475 by a personal note given by Adams to Brown. The latter went to the First National Bank and discounted the note and pocketed the balance. In due course of time Dr. Adams' application went through the usual form and for some reason it was rejected, he no longer being a satisfactory risk. He then made application for the return of his note which had never been received by the company and an investigation was begun. On August 1st the note became due and Dr. Adams was notified by the bank that his obligation was due.

Brown was interrogated and said that he would take the note up, but instead of doing so left the city. His connections were severed with the company and as he had given the company's receipt for the money the company was responsible for the amount and immediately took steps to bring Brown to justice. Through some of their agents Brown was located at Stockton and a warrant was sworn out for his arrest. A telephone message was sent to Chief of Police Walker there and fifteen minutes later he telephoned back that he had the man under arrest. Notice of the fact was given to Constable Morris Lane, who went to Stockton yesterday and returned with the man this morning and took him before Judge Quinn, who fixed his bond at $2000.

Brown makes a good appearance and is a suave talker. He has great ability as an insurance man, but it is stated by the company's officials that he was in trouble once in Utah.

SAW TWO BEARS.

M. Groux, connected with the piano house of Kohler & Chase, has returned from a long trip in the wilds of Mendocino county.

Mr. Groux came new not returning, while hunting with a shotgun, and with light bird shot, he came upon two large grizzly bears. He was not prepared to slaughter such big game, and for a while he hesitated. He was a novice, but he was a brave man. He was a novice, but he was a brave man. He was a novice, but he was a brave man.

He says that the next time he goes hunting in that vicinity he will carry a rifle of large calibre. The shotgun he carried would have had no more effect upon the bears than if it had been discharged against a stone wall.

Mr. Groux says that he now realizes what heart palpitation is, and does not desire to have such a hair-breadth experience again.

NEARLY LOST HIS RIGHT HAND.

Frank Thompson, the assistant superintendent at the Piedmont Baths was the victim of a very peculiar accident a few days ago while hunting in the hills in the vicinity of Walnut Creek and as a result of which his crippled hand and arm are now being treated at the Receiving Hospital.

While hunting in the Walnut Creek hills a few days ago he happened to see a rabbit enter a hole in the side of the hill. Thompson thought it would be possible for him to bag the rabbit and accordingly he attempted to follow the hole in the muzzle of his gun. While thus engaged the gun which had become full of earth exploded nearly tearing Thompson's right hand from his wrist.

CHANGES HER PLEA.

Catherine English, who was arrested with Charles Merrill, charged her plea of not guilty to the charge of being a vagrant. She will be sentenced Saturday.

August Opens With Saving Sales

A Pleasing Bulletin from the Suit Department

Today's news from the suit department makes pleasing reading for every shopper. The reductions quoted, it must be remembered, are typical of many others.

$12.50 SCHOOL SUIT FOR $7.50.
Very pretty indeed are these misses' school suits of red, blue or brown cheviot. The jacket is a collarless "con" with fancy vest at pleats or capes. It is lined with satin, prettily trimmed and piped in taffeta. The skirt has five kick pleats.

$27.50 STREET SUIT FOR $12.50.
This elaborately suit is of fancy mixed tweed. The jacket is short and fitted, and has a broadcloth vest, trimmed with braid. It is lined with silk. The handsomely finished skirt has seven gores and a heavy silk drop.

$27.50 ETAMINE SUIT FOR $17.50.
A prettier suit of blue or black etamine could not be imagined. The jacket is a collarless eton with full sleeves and deep shoulder cap. It is taffeta lined, and elaborately trimmed. The skirt has seven gores with triple kick pleats and its seams are piped with silk.

A Little Run on Handkerchiefs
For the remainder of this week we offer above ten designs in hemstitched and embroidered handkerchiefs of fine linen and lawn—regularly 20c each—at the special August price of 15c each.

A Ruffling Special
Silk taffeta ruffling for trimmings and fancy work in black, white, cream and blue—regularly 25c special price—20c per yard.

SPECIAL
"Notabook" fasteners—formerly 10c each—on special sale at 5c each—5c per card.

SILKS Formerly $1.25 per yard Closing Price 35c per yard
Possibly you remember our June sale of mohair silks. They were of $1.25 quality, bought advantageously in New York, and sold to you at 50c per yard. We find we have about 500 yards still on hand. There are yellow, pinks, blues, greens and old rose, both plain and figured. You will find them suitable for waists, dresses and evening coats. While they last, they may now be had at 35c per yard.

Laces at Half Price
Below you will find the details regarding a number of laces which have been reduced in about half price. They may be most effectively used in trimming for early fall waists and gowns. The fact that there are not many of them left has brought about this reduction.

Black chantilly galloons—
Formerly 15c per yard—1 inch wide—now 7 1/2c per yard
Formerly 25c per yard—3 inches wide—now 15c per yard
Formerly 40c per yard—3 1/2 inches wide—now 25c per yard

WOMAN RESORTS TO POISON

Arrested on a Charge of Killing Her Step- daughter.

HARTFORD CITY, Ind., August 4.—The arrest of Mrs. W. R. Krauss, the young wife of a leading druggist and business man, on a charge of poisoning her step-daughter, one of the most popular young women of the city, has caused great excitement. The stomach of the dead girl will be given a chemical analysis.

Mrs. Krauss is still in jail. She is 27 years old and the daughter of Dr. W. A. Anderson, president of the State Veterinary Association. The mother of Mrs. Krauss (nee Rae Anderson) died in a Cincinnati hospital. Mrs. Krauss was one of the beneficiaries of his will. All property owned by Mrs. Krauss in his name. At the time of his marriage to Rae Anderson, three months ago, he made a will bequeathing practically all his property to his daughter, Crystal Krauss, the dead girl.

TRAINS CRASH IN THE SOUTH.

MANY PEOPLE ARE INJURED BUT NOBODY IS KILLED.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 4.—The South-bound passenger train on the Louisville & Nashville Railroad which left Cincinnati at six o'clock last night, collided early today near Horse Cave, Kentucky, with North-bound passenger No. 2, which left Nashville about 8:30. Thirty-three passengers and four trainmen were injured but none, it is thought, will die. The condition of Engineer Rehm, on No. 1, is serious.

According to information received here, Rehm either disregarded orders or was asleep, as his train was going forty miles an hour when it struck the other track.

COUNTRY CLUB TO MORTGAGE LANDS.

The Claremont Country Club has petitioned for an injunction to prevent the mortgage of its recently acquired property in the Rockledge tract for the purpose of raising $15,000, the remainder of the purchase price. It is stated in the petition that it is deemed for the best interests of the club to raise the money in this way. A resolution to this effect was passed by the board of directors at a meeting held last June. The money, it is set forth, is due to C. J. Foster, Amy Crocker Gourd and Gladys Gourd.

PACKERS WIN IN FEDERAL COURT.

OMAHA, August 4.—Judge Munger, in the Federal Court today, denied the motion of the attorneys for the packing-house employees to quash an affidavit of the packers asking the court to punish certain of the strikers for contempt of court because of an alleged violation of an injunction issued by the court against picketing. The court ruled, however, that the affidavit should contain the names of all strikers alleged to have been guilty of contempt, and gave the packers until August 16th to amend their affidavit.

SENATOR HOAR ILL.

WORCESTER, Mass., Aug. 4.—Reports in circulation that Senator Geo. F. Hoar is seriously ill, were denied at the Senator's residence today. He has been troubled with lumbago all summer, but is not confined to his room, and it is stated he is improving daily.

WILL CONFISCATE PART OF CARGO.

ARABIA WILL SOON BE RELEASED BY THE RUSS- SIANS.

VLADIVOSTOK, Aug. 4.—The prize court has decided to confiscate such portion of the cargo of the Portland and Asiatic steamer Arabia as was consigned to Japanese ports, namely 50,000 pounds of flour and the railroad equipment, this portion constituting less than half the bulk and weight of her cargo, the remainder consisting of 142,500 pounds of flour consigned to Hong Kong. The confiscated portion of the cargo is now being unloaded. As soon as this is completed the steamer will be released.

Having disposed of the Arabia, the prize court will now take up the case of the ship sunk, four Japanese schooners, a Japanese steamer, the Thea, and the Knight Commander. The Thea, according to the statements of her crew, was chartered at the opening of the war to carry contraband. She visited Modji, Japan, March 12th, and had since called at Kobe, Yokohama, Hakodate and other Japanese ports several times. The crew also say that the Japanese freighted twenty German and many more British and American ships with contraband.

POPULISTS CHARY OF DEM'S.

HESITANCY DISPLAYED IN GOING INTO FUSION AGREE- MENT.

TOPEKA, Kas., August 3.—The Populist State convention, which adjourned last April to await the gatherings of the Democrats, hoping for fusion, was called to order here today by Major A. J. Harvey, the State chairman, with fewer than 200 delegates present out of 800 allowed.

The anti-Democratic Populists held a caucus early with John Mollison of Smith county presiding. A resolution was adopted declaring in favor of having a conference committee appointed by Congressional districts, each district to select its own committee, to confer with the Democrats. The Democrats were asked to join in a fusion ticket to be placed under the People's Party head. If they cannot agree on this the Populists will agree to an independent ticket to be placed under the head of the union.

The Populists say they will never agree to ballot in the Democratic column.

WOULD FUSE WITH POPULISTS.

DEMOCRATS OF KANSAS WILL MARCH WITH CALAMITY HOWLERS.

TOPEKA, Kas., August 3.—The Democrats of Kansas met in convention here today to name a State ticket today. Hugh Parrelly, chairman of the State Committee, called the convention to order, introducing E. E. Hackney of Wellington as temporary chairman.

Among the prominent Democrats present were ex-Governor Glick and ex-United States Senator Harris.

A majority of the delegates favor fusion with the Populists, but those whose State convention also met here today. A conference committee was appointed to meet with the Populists, after which the convention took a recess until 3 o'clock.

MRS. MAYBRICK TO LEAVE.
ROUEN, France, August 4.—There is reason to believe that Mrs. Florence Maybrick is still here, though there are indications that she is preparing for her departure.

JAPS STRONG IN THE FIELD.

THEIR PLAN IS TO STRIKE THE RUSSIAN MAIN ARMY.

ST. PETERSBURG, August 4.—The army organ makes no effort to forecast events of the immediate future in the Far East and gives no clue to Gen. Kuroki's intentions, but it declares that events of the last ten days demonstrate conclusively that the Japanese have been to strike the main army of the Russians, and not, as popularly supposed, to take Port Arthur.

The paper says the Japanese general advance began July 23, the taking of Ta Toke Kiao being a signal for the final struggle in the valley of the Liao River.

On July 31, after six days' preparation, the armies of Generals Oka and Nodzu moved against Hai Cheng. The same day General Kuroki began his advance upon Liao Yang, rushing the position of the Russian eastern army at Yangsue Pass, the Russian General Hermann Yushu Pass, equivalent to the Japanese "Yehulintai." This places the strength of General Kuroki's army at 120,000, of which 25,000 are on the high road to Liao Yang, 50,000 on the Salimatsa-Liao Yang road, 30,000 on the roads to Mukden and to the coast.

The paper does not give the figures of General Oka's and Nodzu's armies, which are believed to bring the total close to 200,000.

The sailing of the cruiser division of the Baltic squadron has been prepared for tonight. The cruiser Oleg and the transport Kamchatka are ready to go into commission. The ships now commissioned are the battleships Alexander III and Borodino, the armored cruiser Chesla Borodino, the armored cruiser Admiral Nakhimov, the battleship Navarin, the battleship Orel, the battleship Souvaroff, the battleship Orel, two other cruisers, with quite a flotilla of torpedo boats and torpedo boat destroyers.

CATHOLIC LADIES TO ENTERTAIN.

The ladies of the dairy booth are very busy arranging a whist party for the benefit of St. Anthony's fair, to take place next Saturday evening, August 6, at 2:30 o'clock, in St. Anthony's Hall, Sixteenth avenue and Sixteenth street, East Oakland. There will be many very pretty game prizes as well as a beautiful door prize. All who attend are assured of spending a pleasant afternoon. In charge of the booth are Miss Leza C. White, Miss Mary Hampel, Mrs. J. H. Harty, Mrs. Edward Carroll, Mrs. R. Mills, Miss M. Harrington, Miss M. K. Lamb, Mrs. M. J. Colgate, Miss M. Lamb, Mrs. W. V. Harrington.

LETS AN ESKIMO WOMAN GO FREE

Mrs. Olga Hona, a pretty young Eskimo woman who resides in Berkeley, was before Police Judge Smith this morning on a charge of drunkenness. She explained in very broken English that she had three small babies at home and wished to take care of them.

Judge Samuel asked her if she had ever been drunk before. With an air of composure, she admitted she had. Her honor made an impression on his honor and he allowed her to go.

WEED OUT WEAK CASES.

FOURTEEN SCAVENGERS INSTEAD OF NINETY-ONE TO BE TRIED.

By the process of eliminating the weak cases against the scavengers, Attorney Gen. S. Church, who is associated with the prosecution, has been able to reduce the number of cases which are to be tried from ninety-one to fourteen.

Had the cases not been weeded out it is a serious question of whether or not juries could have been obtained to try the cases.

During the trial of Angelo Legoria there were more than 200 talesmen examined. This would mean, if the same proportion was maintained in the entire number of cases, that 15,000 or more men would have had to be summoned to be examined as to their qualifications as jurors.

The fourteen cases will be test cases. The manner in which they are disposed of will probably determine the fight.

SAW THE FAIR.

ST. LOUIS, August 4.—Tired out but greatly pleased with their sight-seeing and experiences at the World's Fair, Theodore Roosevelt Jr. and Kermit, sons of President Roosevelt, with their cousins, Philip Roosevelt, and Alexander Russell, who had been here since Friday evening, returned to Washington today.

BELDAE WINS.

SARATOGA, N. Y., August 4.—The Alabama stakes, valued at $500, one and one-eighth miles: Beldae won. Time, 1:53.3.

WHEAT TAKES A JUMP.

CHICAGO, August 4.—Amid excitement on the Board of Trade wheat for September delivery made a gain of 3 cents over opening prices.

CAPT. KELLNER DIES UNDER THE KNIFE.

BERKELEY, August 3.—Captain Emil Kellner, formerly superintendent of the grounds of the University of California, died at the Fabiola Hospital today as a result of an operation performed yesterday. Captain Kellner was an old soldier, having served with distinction in the Franco-Prussian war.

WORKERS TO GIVE A BALL.

BENEFIT DANCE TO BE GIVEN BY UNION DURING THIS MONTH

Great interest is being taken by the members of Alameda local, No. 53, Laundry Workers' Union, in the benefit ball to be given on August 27 at Forrester's Hall, Thirteenth and Clay streets. The object of the ball is to assist in defraying the traveling expenses to a more congenial climate and maintaining there for an indefinite period one of the members, whose health is in such a delicate condition that a change of climate is necessary. The committee in charge is as follows: Miss Nellie Connors, Miss Alice Connors, Miss Harriet, Miss Anne Harz, Miss Lizzie Harz, Miss Ode, Miss Jenkins, Miss Lily Law, Miss Nellie Law, Miss Jennie Miller, Miss Egan, Miss M. Machado, Miss O'Dell, Miss L. Green, Miss L. Osterloh, S. Gray, E. Jones, E. Lyman, A. Bonne, George Carrington, R. Nicholson, T. P. Clark, H. Lefon, V. J. Smiley, P. Lausler, J. Frendelville, A. G. Giger and A. V. O'Neil.

The affair will last all night and the committee are sanguine of its being a social as well as a financial success. Lecturers' orchestra will furnish the music for the occasion.

BRICKLAYERS' PICNIC.

Great preparations are being made for the picnic of the Bricklayers' Union of Oakland, local No. 7, and San Jose local No. 10, which takes place on August 14 at Schenck's Park, East Bay. It is expected that a large number of people will attend and arrangements for their accommodation and transportation are being made.

CARPENTERS, NO. 35.

At the meeting of Carpenters' Union, No. 35, last night five candidates were initiated into the order. The applications on file, Contractor or Eastman has been placed upon the "roll" list.

OTHER MEETINGS.

On Tuesday night the Teachers' Union, No. 70, will hold a special meeting to consider the matter of labor day celebration.

Tonight the general labor day committee meets at clubs and workers' headquarters and sub-committees will make reports.

The Carpenters' Union has decided not to participate in Labor Day parade.

WILL HEAR SNOW'S CASE.

SUPREME COURT WILL LISTEN TO ARGUMENTS OF MELROY

INGRAM GIVEN THE LIMIT.

MAN WHO CHASED WIFE WITH KNIFE GETS NO MERCY FROM JUDGE.

B. H. Ingram, the engineer who amused himself by chasing his wife, Mary Ingram, through the house in the dead of night with a butcher knife while under the influence of liquor, was given the limit of six months in the City Prison by Police Judge Samuel this morning. Mrs. Ingram, on the night of the assault, in making her escape from her infuriated husband, jumped through a window and sought shelter with neighbors. On the morning of the next day she telephoned the police and Lee Andrews responded. He had to batter down the door to get Ingram, who, until he saw the tail form of the policeman, was in a fighting mood. Andrews took the man, handcuffed and landed him in the City Prison.

This is the second time that the engineer has been placed in jail as a result of his assaults on his wife.

MERCHANT MARINE COMMISSION.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 4.—The Congressional Merchant Marine Commission met in the rooms of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce today for the purpose of listening to suggestions from various shipping men tending to the betterment of the American merchant marine.

Senator J. H. Gallinger acted as chairman of the meeting. The entire day was devoted to the hearing. The noon hour, after a lunch had been partaken, was spent in visiting the fore-castles of vessels in the harbor to learn how the sailor lives while on the high seas, and to determine how his mode of life may be bettered.

Among those who spoke today were: J. H. Rolph, George D. Gray, H. E. Pennell, Eugene Scidler, Frank N. Todd of Berkeley and E. M. Preston.

Wilbur Walker and J. S. Wilson, representing the Merchants Exchange, and E. P. Vandercok, representing the Board of Trade of Oakland, attended the meeting of the Commission for the purpose of impressing upon the visitors the necessity of an appropriation for the deepening of the harbor to permit the sailing of larger vessels.

With reading matter pertaining to Alameda county and which he distributed among those present.

Al. Preston, representing the Oceanic Steamship Company, appeared before the Commissioners and made an address. Others also spoke.

R. H. BEARN KILLED

WILLITS, Cal., August 4.—Ralph H. Bearn, an employee of the Irvine and Muir Lumber Company here, was killed this morning by a log rolling over his body. He recently came here from Watsonville, where his relatives reside.

EX-GOVERNOR DEAD.

COLUMBUS, Wis., August 4.—Ex-Governor James T. Lewis of Wisconsin, died today of apoplexy.

GO LADY LOSES HER NEW DEAL OF THE PACKERS.

IMPORT A LOT OF IMMIGRANTS FROM ELLIS ISLAND.

CHICAGO, August 4.—The packers today introduced a distinct novelty in strike-breaking—a railroad from Ellis Island. The immigrants were smuggled into the yards in groups of ten or twelve to the various departments and put to work.

TALK OF PEACE.

CHICAGO, August 4.—Communication looking to negotiations for a settlement of the stock yards strike were resumed this afternoon. For the first time since the last joint conference ended abruptly by the packers refusal to accept the ultimatum of the Allied Trades representatives of the employers and the butchers' workmen were in conference. The utmost secrecy was maintained by both sides as to the conference.

THE INDEPENDENTS.

ST. LOUIS, August 4.—It is estimated that as the result of the strike of butchers and meat cutters at least twenty-four independent abattoirs are now in operation in this city and are killing from 800 to 1,000 head of cattle, hogs and sheep daily. These plants are being run by union men.

DONNELLY TALKS.

KANSAS CITY, August 4.—President Daniel Donnelly today addressed separate meetings of the local unions of meat butchers and other trades allied with the packing-house strikers. All was quiet in the strike district.

DONNELLY CALLED BACK.

CHICAGO, August 4.—International Secretary Homer D. Call, who had been called to Kansas City to see that any move for an end of the strike must be made by the packers, and that he wished he "could settle with honor today."

Numbers of strike-breakers employed in the packing plants are regarded as deserting in bunches of fifty or more when paid off. Strikers' allegations of unsanitary conditions at the packing houses elicited a specific denial today. Dr. Katsch, chief surgeon for Swift & Co., will make a thoroughly investigation.

EVERETT J. BROWN IN WASHINGTON.

Everett J. Brown, who is now in Washington, D. C., in a letter to a friend, says:

"Upon my arrival in Washington I found Secretary McCall had no work in his department. One really has no conception of the magnitude of the work covered by the Department of Labor and Commerce. I am staying at the Arlington with Secretary McCall and am certainly seeing all there is to be seen in the legislative branch of the government. Fair and enjoyed it very much indeed. California has an exhibit that should certainly make every resident feel proud."

PORTLAND LOSES ON ERRORS.

CLOSE AND EXCITING GAME WON BY THE TIGERS.

Portland lost yesterday's game on the home grounds by a number of unfortunate errors. The final score being 5 to 4 in favor of the Tacoma Tigers. In the first and third innings four runs were scored by Portland. Castro's three-bagger adding considerably. The Tigers have not fully, but after that the trouble began.

In the fifth inning, the ball was knocked over the right field fence for a home run by Casey. In the sixth there being two out and two men on base, Catcher Shea allowed a ball to get past him on his third strike with Casey up. The not only placed the second baseman on first, but scored a run. After Shea tried to head Casey at second and the run was returned, he dropped it and Lynch scored. Shea was struck on the cranium and knocked out of the game. Tacoma finally captured the game by Hastings wild throw and a fumble at the home plate on the part of Steelman.

COURSING AT UNION PARK.

On Sunday eighty racing hounds of the second flight will compete at Union Park in drawing and beaten dog events. The drawing last night matched them perfectly.

Twenty-four dogs of more than average ability were entered in the reserve stake, while the fifty-six nominations to the beaten dog stake are principally thirty candidates and dogs that have won first or second money at Union Park during the past six months. Both stakes will be run entirely on Sunday, the dog to be beaten being selected by a committee on the arrival of the 10.15 a. m. train.

The drawing. Reserve stakes. Twenty-four nominations. Time vs. Fanny Frie, Horst John vs. Humboldt, Mickey Free vs. Amundson, Runaway Actress vs. Gambler, Liberator vs. Real Article, Don't vs. Faise Alam, Al Amigo vs. Mellonwood, Rooster Arm vs. Giverson, Hudson vs. Red Pepper, Gold Chain vs. Red, Duhallow vs. Cubanoia, Orsine vs. Rag, Red Actor.

SEATTLE WINNERS.

Results at The Meadows yesterday were as follows: First race, six furlongs—Cracko won, Jerry Plannigan second, Ricful third. Time, 1:15. Second race, seven furlongs—Pruewood won, Mosquito second, Harry Thatcher third. Time, 1:25. Third race, six furlongs—Suburban Queen won, Dr. Sherman second, The Pride third. Time, 1:14. Fourth race, six furlongs—Gertie Harry won, Profitable second, Harry Beck third. Time, 1:12. Fifth race, seven furlongs—Flourish won, Myrtle H. second, Lady Rice third. Time, 1:18. Sixth race, one mile—Isabellita won, Cabbello second, Fennance third. Time, 1:41.

CALIFORNIAN WINS AT TENNIS.

In the play beginning yesterday at Minneapolis in the Northwest tennis tournament, R. G. Hunt of California won by default from W. F. Graves of St. Paul. This was in the first round singles. In the second round Hunt defeated Miles Warner of Minneapolis, 6-1, 6-1.

A BALD NEWSPAPER MAN

Getting a New Crop of Hair, and Has No More Dandruff.

Everybody in the Northwest knows Col. Daniel Searles, the veteran journalist and publisher of Butte, January 10, 1900, the Colonel writes: "I used a couple of bottles of Herpelc's with marvelous results. The dandruff disappeared. A new crop of hair has taken root and the bald spot is rapidly being covered." Herpelc is the only hair preparation that kills the dandruff germ that digs up the scalp in sales as it burrows its way to the root of the hair, where it destroys the vitality of the hair, causing the hair to fall out. Kill the dandruff germ with Herpelc. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpelc Co., Detroit, Mich. Bowman & Company, Special Agents.

NELSON IN GREAT DEMAND.

THE "BOTTLE" MAY NOW HAVE A GO WITH ANY OF THE BIG ONES.

Since Battling Nelson has come before the glittering footlights in the arena and has made such a good showing in the ring, there are many whom he is after and many who will "as soon as they get ready" express some kind of a willingness to go against the Dan. Nelson has certainly made good in his fights here since coming from Chicago and is now considered to have a chance with the top-notchers. Sports are looking for a go between Nelson and either Britt or Corbett.

The understanding between Britt and Young Corbett will, without doubt, preclude any battle between either of the two lads and Nelson until they have tried conclusions. Nelson has proven himself a strong candidate for the honor of meeting either of the two big-little fellows. He has defeated Martin Canale and the pride of California, Eddie Hanlon. His victory over Canale placed him a peg ahead in the pugilistic counting board and his recent decisive victory over Hanlon makes him a sure candidate for the next battle between the best of the feather-weights.

Alex Greggians, who is looking for a good September card, thought that he could get Young Corbett for a part of a whole drawing card, but Corbett answered that there was little doing for him until he had showed his old rival, Jimmy Britt, the ways and wherefores of a Graney decision. There was a chance that Jimmy Gardner and Battling Nelson might be matched for the September card, but this is considered all off, as Nelson and Gardner cannot agree on weights. Joe Gans has been trying to get hold of Britt for some time and has offered to make good weight, but he has been unable to make good on this proposition. And it looks now as if Gardner and Gans would form part of a good card for September. The match would be a great drawing card, as the two men are of the same weight and are considered to be an almost equal match. Gans and Gardner are considered by all sports to be in the same heavy-lightweight class and would put up a capital contest. Greggians could not find a better card for the main event than these two clever boys.

BIG ATHLETIC MEET.

PACIFIC ASSOCIATION AND OTHER ORDERS TO TAKE PART.

Much interest is being taken by all sporting fraternities in the building of the speedway, cycle track, cinder path and oval at Golden Gate Park. ## TO SUPPLY ELECTRICITY.

PORTLAND, Or., August 4.—The Mount Hood Electric Company was incorporated here today for the purpose of supplying this city with electricity for commercial uses of the new company also the intention of the new company was to build a trolley line to the base of Mount Hood. The power is to be obtained on the sandy river about twenty miles east of this city. The company is capitalized at $100,000. The incorporators are C. W. Miller, an attorney of this city; G. W. Waterbury, also of Portland and Edwin D. Whitney of Chicago. Chicago capitalists are back of the enterprise.

PHYSICIANS APPOINTED.

NEW YORK, August 4.—President Amador has sent to the Minister of the Interior a list of appointments of physicians to form a committee of organization for the Pan-American Medical Congress, which will meet next December in Panama City, says the Panama correspondent of the Herald. The nominees will be officially notified at once.

OSCAR GRAHAM, OF THE OAKLAND BASEBALL TEAM, WHO STANDS FIRST IN THE LIST OF BOATSMEN.

BARRY TO MEET SULLIVAN.

CHAMPION OF THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS TO BOX IN LOS ANGELES.

Dave Barry, who comes back from Honolulu wearing the laurels of champion of the Hawaiian Islands will meet "Twin" Sullivan at Los Angeles, August 2. Dave, when he left the coast for the Paradise of the Pacific, had no great honors with the exception of being a clever and game fellow in the ring. He made good there, defeating everyone against whom he went and on his return he met and signally defeated Harry Foley. This placed him ahead in the game and entitled him to meet some of the more clever fellows. Barry will receive a good hacking against Sullivan who is considered to be one of the cleverest in the class.

Twin has a good reputation among the boxers and is known to be a hard man to get around having met with few defeats. Barry has defeated the champions of the islands and comes home in fit trim and with a good record. The two should prove a good card and it is considered that the match will draw a big crowd from the city.

Phoenician Billy Woods, who runs a gymnasium in Honolulu on Belhel street had Barry in training when he went up against the island champion, Jack Weddy. Weddy had never been defeated at the time the two met and the odds of the battle were on the holder of the title. Woods had little to say but backed Barry strongly. Dave won in a two-round walk and from that time on he made good in every phase of the game. He improved greatly when he was in the islands and those who have seen him work since his return say that he is surely a "comer."

Twin Sullivan is no "blotch" as all sports know and when these two boys get into the ring, it will mean the defending a well-earned title for Sullivan and new honors to be gained for Barry.

M'COY MAY FIGHT JACK MUNROE.

There has been some talk of bringing out Kid McCoy as a feature, but there seems to be little doubt that he would not draw. His fight with Choyinski put him in bad repute among coast sports, though one and all concede that he is one of the cleverest boxers in the ring, in fact, the cleverest next to Jim Corbett. The incorporators are C. W. Miller, an attorney of this city; G. W. Waterbury, also of Portland and Edwin D. Whitney of Chicago. Chicago capitalists are back of the enterprise.

RACING AT SAN JOSE.

RAJAH WINS THE FEATURE EVENT OF THE DAY.

A good crowd attended the opening of the meet of the Pacific Coast Trotting Horse Breeders' Association at San Jose, yesterday. The weather was perfect and the track fast. Two trials against time preceded the program. T. W. Barstow's High Fly, driven by the owner, went a mile in 2:24 1/4, and Alta Nolo, owned by Thomas Montgomery, made the circuit in 2:23 1/4.

The green class trotting race for a stake of $500 brought out a fast crowd. The three heats were won in succession by Jupiter B, his best time being 2:15 1/4.

W. W. Goodall's Rajah won the Pacific Slope stakes in straight heats, the first in 2:10 1/4. Bill Red kept him moving in the third heat, but broke on the last stretch, Rajah winning in a drive with the field bunched several lengths behind.

The first heat of the 2.13 trot brought the crowd to the feet. Leige pressed Ole close and it was a race around home but Ole pulled away and crossed the wire a length ahead. The next two heats fell to Ole in splendid fashion, winning easily. Summaries:

To beat 2:30—High Fly, Nearest, dam by Bismarck (T. W. Barstow, Time 2:24 1/4). To beat 2:35—Alta Nolo, blk. m., Allant-Nola (John Phippen), Time 2:24 1/4.

Trot, green class, $300, three in five. Jupiter B, b. g., by General Beverly-Little Agnes (W. G. Duff), 1 1 1. Milbore, br. h., by Prince Albert-Fearless (John Phippen), 2 3 3. Lady Madison, b. m., by James Madison-Nepheux (T. E. Ward), 3 2 2. Mamie R., ch. m., by Nutwood Wilkes-Ingar (W. Cecil), 2 4 5. Telephone, br. g., by Direct-Nellie (Hans Frelson), 4 5 4. Time—2:19 1/4, 2:17, 2:16 1/4.

The Pacific Slope stakes, $1500, 2:20 class, pace, three in five. Rajah, Charles Derby, General Benton (McGulre), 1 1 1. Billy Red, by General (J. D. Spencer), 3 4 2. Doctor J., by Doc Wicks (E. A. Service), 5 2 3. Hattie Cropper, by Bay-Bird (C. T. B. Zibille), 4 3 4. Flora G. Miss Winn, Cavalier, Tom Carnel and Mildred O., also raced. Time 2:10 1/4, 2:12, 2:13.

Trot, 2.13 class, $750, three in five. Leige, b. h., by Lebasco-Raven (C. F. White), 2 5 5. Tom Smith, br. h., by McKinney-Daisy S. (J. D. Zibille), 4 4 6. Time—2:11 1/4, 2:13, 2:14 1/4.

ARRANGING FOR FOOTBALL.

Word is received from Stanford that R. W. Barret, athletic manager and treasurer of the Associated Students of Stanford University, who has just returned from his Eastern trip with the Stanford track team, will begin at once to prepare a schedule of games and make other arrangements for the football season of 1904, which begins about September 1.

Treasurer Barnett has already begun negotiations with several institutions of learning on the coast and it is almost a certainty that the University of Oregon, the Peris Indians and one of the larger colleges of Southern California.

Arrangements for a game with the University of Nevada have also been discussed and there is little doubt that the Stanford team will be given their customary annual trip to the Stanford campus. Some correspondence has been had with the manager of the University of Washington team, but a game with Washington will probably not be arranged on account of the desire of the Washington manager to have Stanford play in Seattle instead of sending his team to Stanford. The Stanford team could not go north before the intercollegiate contest with California and the faculty would probably not allow the team to take the trip late in the semester.

Yesterday Kid McCoy passed through Chicago en route to Salt Lake. He stated that he intended making arrangements for a match with Jack Munroe to take place in the Utah capital next month under the auspices of the Shamrock Athletic Club.

McCoy received word from Harry Pollok, Munroe's manager, to the effect that he expects a hitch in the big fight regarding the referee and that should the fight fall through he will put Munroe against McCoy at Salt Lake.

SEALS TURN THE TABLES.

SAN FRANCISCO WINS A GAME FROM THE OAKLAND LANDS.

Yesterday's game at Recreation Park, San Francisco, between the Seals and Commuters resulted in a victory for the former by a score of 5 to 5. Whalen, familiarly known as "the Whale," who twirled for San Francisco, was the gentleman who won the battle, and it is the second one he has captured and, incidentally, it may be mentioned that these two games are all the Seals have been able to call his own in the second half. Whalen did most of the work. This will be generally admitted when it is told how he got four safe hits out of four times up and one of them a double. What more could be expected of a pitcher—one lone pitcher who, he it known, bears upon his shoulders a weight of care unspeakable.

The man from Oakland who faced the Seals was "Doc" Moskman, which latter surname some one in a spirit of levity and a pinch for word-plays has transformed to "Moskman," and the unfortunate wearer is said to be the burden of this awful incubus of a name. For some time prior to the big game—in some weeks, in short "Doc" has played indifferently, but has had no chance at the slab, but yesterday he made his reappearance by special request—and he lost the game. Oakland was not in the earlier stages, made their presence known by some good work. They started out with a lead of two tables. These were piled in the second edition. Our old friend Willow came to bat, having a brand new out a single that was a head-hitter. With perfectly good intentions, Devereaux, who was supposed to be a safe, but an effectual throw to second station. An orthodox score by 8 runs followed and Devereaux scored Moskman and Devereaux with single to short.

The Seals went ahead one tally in the fourth. Both Hillbrand and Meany singled, and Devereaux hit safely. This win singled and this, coupled with a wild throw to the plate by Duntaway, scored Meany. On a safety from Anderson's bat, Townsend and Irwin scored.

Inning five Oakland led the score. Frelson and Gans singled. Duntaway, doubled and Frankie was scored. This might have been continued had not Gansley been caught at the plate and Duntaway tagged off second base—but here's how it happened. Whalen binged over first and Waldron forced him out at second and Gansley hit safely. This was given a life. Tow sent out at first and Waldron and on Irwin's hit to first and Duntaway and Meany rode home. Andy singled to right field and together with Irwin a double steal was executed. Gansley, on a one out, hit a home run. In the last, but they were of no consequence—enough of the history is contained in the above score:

SEATTLE IS SHUT OUT.

NEWTON OF LOS ANGELES HOLDS SIWASHES DOWN FOR SEVEN HITS.

In yesterday's game at Los Angeles the home team shut out the Seattle forces. Newton, the Southern pitcher, deserves the credit, for he scattered the hits so well that the Siwashes could not get a runner past third base.

Ball of Seattle twirled good ball and was perfectly steady with men on base. In the first inning two runs were brought in by Cravath's home run. In the seventh another run was utilized by the Angels on three hits in succession. Score:

OAKLAND TRIBUNE

Tribune Publishing Company.

William E. Dargle, President.

Gallinger on Oakland Harbor

Seeing is believing. A personal survey of the bay of San Francisco has greatly impressed the members of the Congressional Commission on Merchant Marine with the importance and possibilities of Oakland harbor. After looking the ground over, Senator Jacob H. Gallinger of New Hampshire, the chairman of the Commission, unhesitatingly declared himself in favor of a government appropriation to deepen and widen the channel. The following expression of his views has an exhilarating sound to the advocates of harbor improvement:

"This tour has certainly been a revelation to me. I have not been unfamiliar with San Francisco's fine bay, but I have seen it and out of it today which have opened my eyes. Especially do I realize the possibilities of Oakland creek as a manufacturing port. I understand the plan is to dredge this to a depth of twenty-five feet and a width of 500 feet. Such a measure, I believe, is to be brought before Congress. If it is, I shall most certainly support it. I take much interest in shipping and there is not a harbor that needs help that may not look for my vote and whatever influence I may have to bring to bear in its favor."

This is indicative of a broad, open-minded spirit. The oftener we can get statesmen like Senator Gallinger to visit the West and note the commercial development of the Pacific Coast, the better it will be for Oakland and California at large. It will bring a familiarity that will not breed contempt. On the contrary, it will increase respect and consideration for Pacific Coast interests and sentiment.

The Raisin Combine's Breakdown

The melancholy lessons of experience have apparently been lost on the raisin growers of Fresno and the adjacent region. After much wrangling and angry dissipation, they have agreed to disagree and their association has gone to pieces. An immediate drop in the price of raisins was the first consequence. A depressed market must ensue till a new combine can be effected. At the close of last season 2000 carloads of raisins were left on the association's hands unsold. While prices were fairly maintained, there still remained this large surplus which must be marketed in competition with this year's crop. With each individual grower and packer anxious to dispose of stock, the effect on prices must be disastrous—that is, unless some sort of an agreement can be patched up to prevent the market from being glutted at the very outset. The condition is one for which nobody is to blame but the growers themselves, or rather a minority of them who proved utterly intractable. The majority were reasonable, but a sufficient number refused to sign the agreement to render the combine abortive. Briefly stated, a considerable number of the growers left to the others the task of upholding prices and preventing a glut in the hope that they, the outsiders, might have a free hand to sell their raisins at a shade below the association's figures. Their program was one of short-sighted greed, and it has resulted as might have been expected. No sympathy need be wasted on those whose stubborn selfishness has brought about the unfortunate condition of affairs, but it is exceedingly regrettable that the majority should be compelled to suffer for the sins of the minority. It is unfortunate that the raisin industry of the State should be given a setback at a time when it seemed firmly established and based on a condition promising a firm market in the future. However, the association is still in legal existence, and it may not be too late to rectify the cardinal blunder just made. Possibly the recalcitrant growers may require another severe chastening lesson to bring them to a reasonable frame of mind. A season of stern adversity will have a convincing effect when all other arguments fail.

It appears that the assassin of Minister von Plehve is neither a Jew, a Finn nor a Pole, as has been variously stated, but is a true Russian, a student of the University of Kharkoff, which was severely disciplined some time ago on account of the revolutionary sentiment displayed by its student body. Because of the harshness exhibited recently toward the Poles, Finns, Jews and Armenians of late, it was hastily assumed that Von Plehve had fallen a victim to the patriotic desperation of some one of those races. As he met his fate at the hands of a Russian proper, his assassination cannot be alleged as a pretext for still more repressive measures in either Poland, Finland or Russian Armenia.

Rev. W. W. Case of Sacramento makes an eloquent plea for better civic government, arguing that a reform in this direction will bring immigrants to California. Did it ever occur to Dr. Case that we might improve civic conditions for our own benefit, even if not for virtue's own sake? Exhortations to practice civic righteousness on the ground that it will encourage immigration doubtless will appeal to some, but it is doubtful if they promote the cause of good government in the long run.

The model government of Alameda, of which our neighbors across the harbor are so fond of boasting, is wrestling with that most serious of problems, a deficit. Incidentally, we take occasion to remark that Oakland closed the fiscal year with a surplus; and a surplus is more convenient to handle than a deficit.

Roosevelt's Worthy Running-Mate

Naturally the same degree of interest does not attach to the utterances of a candidate for Vice-President as attach to the utterances of his associate at the head of the ticket, but the frequency with which the duties of Chief Executive have devolved on Vice-Presidents has directed thoughtful attention to nominees for the secondary position. The three most beloved Republican Presidents have died in office, each by the hand of an assassin, and in one instance—in a most important crisis in the country's history—the succession was peculiarly unfortunate for the Republican party, the States recently in rebellion and the country at large. But if Andrew Johnson was unfitted in temperament, training and personal characteristics from coping with the momentous task that fell to his lot, the successors to Garfield and McKinley made admirable executives. Mr. Roosevelt has made one of the ablest and most popular Presidents the Republic has ever had.

The letter of acceptance of Senator Charles W. Fairbanks, his associate on the ticket, is ample evidence that the convention made a wise choice in nominating him. His views on public questions disclose him as a broad, far-seeing, conservative statesman fully alive to the responsibilities devolving upon the executive head of a great nation. If, by unfortunate mischance, he should be called on to assume the duties of Chief Magistrate, he would acquit himself with dignity and honor, and with a nice regard for the welfare of the nation. His letter has the ring of true statesmanship, is resonant of a robust and intelligent patriotism.

Senator Fairbanks is in entire accord with the President and the platform. His sympathy with the policy of Mr. Roosevelt is reassuring. Mr. Roosevelt has faithfully followed in the footsteps of McKinley, continuing the work of that lamented statesman and sustaining the policies he stood for. Senator Fairbanks bears the same sympathetic relation to the President that the President bore to Mr. McKinley.

Thus the ticket presented by the Republican party to the voters of the nation is harmonious in parts, and in complete accord with the principles enunciated in the platform and the policies which have characterized the two previous administrations.

The Trend of Population

The cities on the east shore of San Francisco bay had their origin in a suburban relation with the chief metropolis of this coast. The relation between San Francisco and its transbay suburbs differs very materially from that subsisting between other cities of the United States and their suburban dependents.

Other cities are connected with their suburbs by land transportation, but in the case of San Francisco and the Alameda coast this is impossible; a water-way over four miles wide separates the suburban branches from the parent tree. A suburb belongs to a phenomena inseparable from the growth of cities. A very large percentage of urban population prefers a suburb. These suburbs are situated at convenient distances from the parent city, but ultimate growth of both causes them to approach each other, when eventually they are incorporated into a single metropolitan relation. Hence we have Greater New York and Greater Chicago, which means that the growth of the cities and their dependent suburbs has expanded until they have merged into indistinguishable lines and have become, as it were, a single incorporation.

As already indicated, the case is different with the Alameda suburbs of the city of San Francisco; they can never be incorporated into the parent city.

The growth of population in the cities on this side of the bay will tend directly toward urban independence; that is to say, the group of cities on the Alameda shore will become one large city spread over the vacant spaces which now intervene and which serve to give them distinctive corporate existence. This distinctiveness will cease and in a brief time the population of the Alameda county cities hitherto known as suburbs of San Francisco will contain more population than the latter city, and they will not only lose their character as suburbs but will become independent, and by reason of the superiority of population will become the paramount, not the subordinate, city of the Pacific Coast.

This prediction has a substantial foundation as the statistical facts presented in the following table will show:

City.	Population in 1890.	Population in 1900.
Alameda .....	11,165	16,464
Berkeley .....	5,101	13,214
East Oakland .....	3,108	8,168
Emeryville .....	228	1,016
Oakland .....	48,682	66,960
Total .....	68,284	105,822

Percentage of increase upon the population of 1890 55 per cent. This statement does not take into account the increase of population of many suburban centers in the vicinity of the cities mentioned nor the change of population exterior to the corporate limits of these cities. If these had been included, the aggregate increase percentage rate would have been very much greater.

In comparison with this, the following significant acts relating to the growth of San Francisco are presented:

City.	Population in 1890.	Population in 1900.
San Francisco .....	298,997	342,782
Aggregate increase, 43,785; percentage of increase, 14.7 per cent.

The percentage of increase in the cities on the east shore of the bay of San Francisco is almost 400 per cent of the percentage of increase in the city of San Francisco.

There is every indication that the present rate of increase on the east shore, as compared with that on the west shore of the bay, is much larger than that observed between the decade of 1890 and 1900. More convenient and more elegant means of communication are rapidly augmenting the population of the cities on this side of the bay. Oakland and Berkeley notably have enjoyed a very much larger percentage of annual increase since 1900 than before that date, while the tendency toward an independent metropolitan existence is more marked than at any time in the history of these communities.

We may reasonably expect that the census of 1910 will show an increase on this side of the bay of from 65 to 70 per cent, and as there is no reason to suppose that the increase of percentage will decline, but every reason to conclude that it will increase in geometrical ratio, the prediction is entirely safe that in 1920 the cities, towns and villages surrounding Oakland will be incorporated into one city having a population largely in excess of the population of San Francisco. The primacy of importance will inevitably accompany the numerical superiority.

"Where did the Oakland TRIBUNE get its information that Carl Schurz supported Bryan in 1900?" asks the Woodland Democrat. From Mr. Schurz' interviews and letters printed extensively in the Democratic press during the last Presidential campaign. Schurz was almost as vociferous in denouncing the American occupation of the Philippines as George H. Boutwell. He was opposed to the Spanish war, and to everything that was done after it commenced. It is our fixed impression, though we have no authoritative data at hand, that he openly urged the election of Bryan.

Foxy Grandpa Davis is having trouble with the boys in West Virginia. The boys want to do the best they can for "the old man," but, unfortunately, they cannot agree as to how it should be done, and in consequence are tearing each other's hair in the excess of their disagreement. This is a situation that taxes all of Foxy Grandpa's astuteness to cope with.

THE PRESIDENT IS CONFIDENT.

President Roosevelt is exceedingly sanguine of his election in November, according to friends who have talked with him in the last few days. The President is confident that the country does not desire a change in the parties in power at this time, and he sees nothing to make him believe that the voters manifest any particular dislike for him. The President's long experience in New York politics has made him acquainted with the varying possibilities there, but it is declared that if a suitable man is nominated by the Republicans for Governor the President feels that the entire Republican ticket will be carried through in November.

Newspaper stories represent the President as earnestly desiring the nomination of ex-Secretary Elihu Root as the Republican candidate for Governor, and some of these stories go so far as to think that the President is looking forward to four years from now or Root, believing that if the ex-Secretary of War is elected Governor this year he will be the logical candidate of the Republicans for President in 1908. This, however, is probably speculative, as the President would not offend various Republican leaders who are looking forward to 1908 by apparently working plans so that Mr. Root would succeed him as President. There are many big men among the Republican leaders who are looking toward the nomination four years from now, and all of them are personal friends of the President. Secretary Taft, Senator Knox of Pennsylvania, Speaker Cannon, Secretary Shaw, who will have the backing of Iowa, Senator Spooner of Wisconsin, Senator Lodge of Massachusetts and others are in the ambitious list. Anything that would look like favoritism for Mr. Root might make some of these men feel unkindly. The President, realizing the prospects, is most likely to keep his hands off in the struggle that will precede his retirement from the Presidency.

The President's confidence as to his election in November is based upon information reaching him through the party leaders in all the States. He has had a number of conferences with most prominent Republicans in the last few weeks, and all of them think the election is assured to the Republicans without question.—Washington Star.

Hints for the Ladies.

Broderie d'Anglaise is the modern name for the old-fashioned buttonhole or eyelet work, with which the new embroiderer's great-grandmother decked her bridal trousseau.

One of the consequences of the revival of the fashions of fifty years ago is the re-appearance of exquisite embroideries on lawn and muslin that have been carefully put away as heirlooms and are now again playing their part in adornment.

One of the prettiest things in belts is made from silk-covered rings and ribbons in the form of a girdle back. It is inexpensive and dressy, can be easily made at home and one to match each gown requiring a belt would not come amiss.

Complete sets composed of collar, cuffs and belt to match have been designed to wear with the linen and cambric blouses of today. They are carried out in white voile embroidered with large china blue spots, the cuffs and collar being cut into small scallops buttonholed round the edge.

Didn't it seem as if every possible source of a new couch pillow had been exhausted months ago? With raffia and buckskin and the revived honeycomb canvas human inventiveness, one thought, could no further go. But there's a new one. What is the material? You'd never guess, for it is—rag carpet. These are a number of coverings in these pillows, all of them somewhat intense, making the articles specially fetching for lawn or piazza use. The fringe is produced by unwoven rags allowed to hang and fray out at will along the edges.

OUR HARBOR IS SHOWN TO GOOD ADVANTAGE.

Merchant Marine Committee Pleased
With the Showing Made for Our City.

Four members of the Merchant Marine Committee of Congress, which is entrusted with the task of regaining America's lost prestige of commercial seas, viewed Golden Gate and other parts of San Francisco yesterday from the deck of the United States transport tug Slocum and were tremendously impressed with what they saw. The possibilities to them up as the distinguished visitors gazed through the Golden Gate toward the Orient brought home to them strongly the realization that America should not only be first on the naval seas but on the commercial seas as well. There was not a member of the Committee but who was impressed with the bay itself.

Senator J. H. Gallinger of New Hampshire, president of the Commission, Representative E. S. Minor of Wisconsin, Representative Thomas Spight of Mississippi and Representative W. E. Humphrey of Washington all were amazed and pleased with the land-locked body of water through which the commerce of the world flows.

As the Slocum, bearing the Commission, turned her prow from the west and headed toward Oakland, possibilities of commerce equally enthralling as the pictured conquest were gaily presented to the ears of the visitors.

Secretary Edwin Stearns of the Board of Trade, Senator Joseph R. Knowland, J. F. Payson, Hugh Hogan, E. P. Adams, E. P. Vandercook, R. Whitehead of the Board of Trade and Wilbur Walker of the Merchants' Exchange all were present to greet the figures. The magnificent Oakland harbor front, where mile after mile of railroad meets mile after mile of deep water, was pointed out to the Commission and they marveled at it. The manufacturing possibilities seized the guests with much force and they were full of expressions as to the future greatness of this city.

THE ESTUARY.
When the Slocum reached the estuary, leading past Boole's shipyard, the Commission was met with the noisy strains and the blowing of whistles. Many of the sailing vessels lying either side of the estuary were gaily decorated with bunting and flags.

Before the Commission had proceeded far up the estuary, Senator Perkins, State Senator, and Secretary Walker and other Oaklanders aboard were far into politics and were landing out statistics to the Commission for comparative and analytical use after its return to Washington, D. C. It was pointed out to the Commission the advisability of cutting a channel 500 feet wide and twenty-five feet deep through the entire length of the estuary and asked that the members of the Commission stand for the improvement when Congressional aid was asked.

The members of your group were supplied with statistics showing the number of vessels charged wharfage during the year at only one wharf, the total tonnage reaching $17,000. When the Slocum was shown up the mud from the bottom of the estuary the committee frankly admitted that for those that preferred perfumes to different odors the estuary of the harbor would be a decided improvement and they promised to remember the situation. Senator Perkins and the other Oaklanders were gratified at the business-like manner in which the Commission grasped the situation, but if much comes of the trip, the Slocum must be given full credit for the part she played as official demonstrator of the shallowness of the estuary and the unpleasant constituency of the mud that lines its bottom.

STEARN'S FIGURES.
Secretary Edwin Stearns handed each member a slip bearing the following information concerning the business done by Adams' wharf alone:

"At one wharf alone in Oakland harbor—Adams' wharf—above the second bridge, during the year beginning January 1, 1903, and closing December 31, 1903, the following figures show the number of vessels that were charged wharfage as shown by the official figures of the wharfinger:

Steamers, 201; sailing vessels, 304; total, 505.
The total net tonnage was 107,400. Steamers, 64,750; sailing vessels, 42,650; total, 107,400.

The above figures do not include city wharves, long wharf, Howard's wharf, or any of the many other wharves along Adams' wharf. "City wharves, Adams' wharf and Howard wharf have all been dredged to a greater depth than the present main channel excavated by the government."

THOSE ABOARD.
After the visit to the Oakland harbor the Commission visited the Union

Iron Works and from thence went to the transport dock. Those comprising the party were:

Attorney E. H. Preston, Captain H. Z. Howard, superintendent of the Oceanic Steamship Company; E. W. Newhall of H. M. Newhall & Co., Captain W. H. Marston of Welch & Co., R. S. Clarke, secretary of the Shipowners' Association; James Jr., president, and H. E. Pennell, vice-president of the Shipowners' Association; R. Schwelb, vice-president of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company; Frank L. Brown, manager of the Pacific Steel Company; Captain Eichen of Eschen & Minor; Robert Dollar, president of the Dollar Steamship Company; George U. Hind of Hind, Rolph & Co.; Samuel U. Wormser; Lester Combs of Kentucky, Minister of Guatemala, A. M. Garland, special agent of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company; Captain Meyer of the Shipowners' Association; Andrew Carignan of the Dunham-Carrigan-Hayden Company; F. C. Friedlander, secretary of the Merchants' Exchange; E. Scott, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce; J. Kentfield, R. G. Cople, Comte Hubert de Montraig, lieutenant of the Second Cruisers of Moulbourg, France; D. D. Bunker, Washington representative of the Chamber of Commerce; Captain A. F. Pillsbury, surveyor for the Board of Marine Underwriters; General N. P. Chipman, president of the State Board of Trade, and representing the interests of Alameda county, Senator J. R. Knowland and J. P. Taylor, Hugh Hogan, Edson F. Adams, E. P. Vandercook, R. Whitehead and Edwin Stearns of the harbor and water front committee of the Oakland Board of Trade, and Wilbur Walker, secretary of the Merchants' Exchange of Oakland.

PURPOSE OF COMMISSION.
The following letter addressed to George Newhall, president of the Chamber of Commerce, gives an adequate idea of the scope of the commission and the things it wishes to consider:

"Your letter of the 21st, addressed to Secretary Stearns, has been received. The commission at Seattle is now completed and the commission leaves this morning for Tacoma, where it will stay until Friday forenoon, when it goes to Portland."

"The commission will take the 3:30 o'clock train from Portland Monday evening and is due at the St. Francis Hotel about 9 o'clock Wednesday morning. August 2. Rooms have already been engaged at this hotel for the party."

"It is assumed that two days will probably be required to hear the important maritime interests by your committee. The commission will be in the city from August 4 and 5 will be the days for the business session. At Seattle, as elsewhere, the commission has heard considerable testimony which is simply history. But what is specifically desired is specific suggestions from practical men as to the best methods by which the American merchant marine in overseas trade may be re-established. The commission would very much appreciate the suggestions of the committee to the present and the future."

The commission desires to hear not only the representatives of your great steamship companies, but also the representatives of sailing ship interests, still so powerful on the Pacific Coast. Representatives of the sailing ship firms and other seafaring men and also workmen in shipbuilding yards will be welcomed most cordially. It will be rendering a great favor to the commission if you can invite to the hearing all those who, in your opinion, are able to give intelligent, practical counsel and give it in a brief businesslike form."

Senator Gallinger and his fellow commissioners regard our visit to the bay as a work of the very first importance. "WINTHROP L. MARVIN," Secretary.

ONE POSSIBLE RESULT.
One of the results of the investigation of the commission may be to recommend to Congress the subsidizing of ships as a means of upbuilding commerce in accordance with the plan of the late Senator Hanna.

Senator Gallinger is a strong advocate of that plan.

ACTOR HARRY C. CLARKE MAKES MANY CHARGES.

Says His Sister-in-law Got Him
Into All Kinds of Trouble—
Will Fight Divorce Case.

While Actor Harry Clarke was delighting large audiences in Texas last month by his ability as a comedian, his wife was extending every effort in the New York courts to obtain a divorce from him on the grounds that he had deserted her.

As soon as Clarke learned how his matrimonial affairs were being aired before the courts he resolved to leave the stage so that he might clear his name in the courts. He has realized about $20,000 from his various tours through the West, and he declares that he will have every detail of the case brought to light if it takes the last dollar he has made.

Mr. Clarke has no fault to find with his wife, formerly Miss Alice Deming of 718 Ellis street, San Francisco, but he declares that her twin sister, Miss Alice Deming, is the cause of all his matrimonial troubles.

He says that she has done all in her power to make her married life disagreeable and that she was always bringing up some argument which would tend to lessen the affectionate relations which naturally exist between man and wife. Clarke says that he has been forced to declare his intention of bringing suit against his father-in-law, Edmund O. Deming, for $100,000 for alienating the affections of Mrs. Clarke.

Clarke became engaged to Miss Alice Deming in December, 1897, while he was playing with the Fraxino company in Honolulu, and while the latter was visiting in that city with her mother and twin sister. The marriage took place February 9, 1898 in San Francisco.

In the month of March following the marriage, Clarke was called to the West, where he was at Portland, and as a result of this, Miss Deming, a member of the company, was discharged. In April, Clarke was in court Miss Deming deposed Clarke as a crazy man and one with whom no actress could get along with.

Clarke's wife, however, was supported by several members of his company, including Miss Warren, whom Clarke declared would bring up some argument which would tend to lessen the affectionate relations which naturally exist between man and wife. Clarke says that he has been forced to declare his intention of bringing suit against his father-in-law, Edmund O. Deming, for $100,000 for alienating the affections of Mrs. Clarke.

In September of that year Clarke had trouble with the management of the new company in which he was engaged. He was to play to popular prices and in this way lower the standing of his reputation. In January, 1901, Clarke was discharged from the company, claiming that Miss Deming and Mrs. Madeline McKelick Brugger, two San Francisco girls in his company, were in the habit of stealing books and smoking cigarettes while in the railway stations. In August Clarke became involved in the "Misses Candy Diet" because he had been making his diet on molasses and milk in order to cure a stomach trouble with which he was afflicted.

In December, when he arrived in Sacramento, the brother of Mrs. Madeline McKelick Brugger was present to administer a horsewhipping to the actor because of the allegations made by him against the lady. In order to avoid this punishment, Clarke thought best to apologize to the lady. The following morning he found that the members of his company had attached his trunk for their salaries.

In August, 1901, his wife alleges he became too friendly with a certain Miss Hathaway in the St. Andrew Hotel, New York. This was followed by a row with the "Hello Bill" company. In December, 1901, he sued the managers of the company at Sacramento, and they retaliated by designating him as a "Gold Brick."

In December Clarke became involved in a row at the Theater Republic, as the result of which he was made the new stage manager. A month later he had a fight with Jim Keane, a former leading man. In March, 1902, his wife alleges that he was too friendly with Margaret Dule Owen, of Seattle, and in consequence of this his wife obtained an interlocutory decree of divorce.

In writing to a friend from Chicago, Clarke makes the following statement: "Alice would change her clothes several times a day, using all of Alice's, by the way—so very few people really knew there were two Deming girls. When I would take her to a little exercise, I was bothered by a lot of men bowing and scraping to Alice, thinking it was Addie. It was a regular comedy of errors, but got to be tiresome, as I would receive a lot of such young men that I had found flirting with Addie in some dark corner of the hotel parlor the night before. To this day there are people in Honolulu who think I married Addie, and who gave me the merry laugh. On our return to San Francisco Addie told her best to break off the match. No go. At the wedding she wanted to bet that we wouldn't live together six months; I beat her by five and a half years."

"It was more than ordinarily successful. I made big money. We took a swing around the States, resorting to Newport, Narragansett Pier, Atlantic City, etc., always at the best hotels. I was sick for four years with stomach trouble and carried a valet, besides throwing away $5000 on doctors—and finally cured myself. When this divorce was made, I was in the hands of the doctors. I paid $10 a day for my rooms alone. I mention these details only to show that Mrs. Clarke was not a very good actress. I finally yielded to Mrs. Clarke's entreaties and patched up a truce with Addie. She joined us; she came back with us. And then the trouble began in earnest."

Mrs. Deming was perfectly satisfied with the manner in which San Francisco friends knew how she went at it in a spectacular manner that would have done credit to an old showman. Then, when it was all over, she suddenly realized that I had taken, as she expressed it, the sunshine out of the house. Alice was the shadowy Deming. Addie was simply impossible, selfish to the extreme. She worshiped but one god, Addie Deming."

In regard to the divorce, Clarke writes: "I certainly did take the sunshine out of that house. Alice is a good girl in every way. When this divorce was made up to me, I am now on my way to New York and will reopen the case and bring suit against her. I have been hard at work on this lately and my lawyers will make it hot for somebody. I have cleared up nearly $5000 in the West, and I'll use every dollar of it to vindicate myself. You are at liberty to use all or as much of the letter as you may wish for publication."

"HARRY CORSON CLARKE."

When the letter was read to the aged father-in-law last night he refused to make any statement for publication, but said that he was prepared to defend himself against any action Clarke might bring.

OREGON BANK IN TROUBLE.
PORTLAND, Ore., August 4.—A special to the Oregonian from Baker City says that as a result of the failure of the bank of Sumpter, a small bank at Sumpter, Ore., Maynard McCallough and D. G. Goss have been placed under arrest. It is alleged that several days before the failure while knowing the bank to be insolvent, they allowed the bank to accept a deposit of $1000. McCallough's connection with the bank is not stated. Goss is the cashier.

THOMAS MORGAN IS DEAD.

FORMER CITY ENGINEER PASSES AWAY AT HIS HOME.

The death of Thomas W. Morgan occurred yesterday afternoon at his home, 611 Nineteenth street. Mr. Morgan was well known in this city, being for some years the City Engineer. He was also well known in Central California, where he had often been engaged in engineering work.

The death of Mr. Morgan came very unexpectedly, as the day before his death he was going about attending to his duties, apparently in the best of health. Death was caused by an internal hemorrhage and he was only ill for a few hours before he passed away.

Mr. Morgan was born in New Orleans December 3, 1839. His mother was Mary De Neal Wolf Morgan and his father was Thomas Nicholson Morgan, a well-known jurist of Louisiana. He was one of the late Adolph Sutro's chief advisors while the latter was laying out the grounds for the Sutro Heights and constructing the railroad connecting that place with San Francisco. Previous to this he had laid out the town of Calistoga.

After coming to Oakland in the late 60's he served as deputy in the City Engineer's office. He was elected to that office himself in 1878 and serving until 1889. Some of the maps that he made during his incumbency have become valuable assistance to succeeding engineers. Unlike the majority of men who hold public office for a number of years, he made very few enemies and was regarded by everyone as a man of sterling principles.

After retiring from office he still continued his work as a civil engineer. He had much to do with the laying out of the town of Richmond. He was a member of the Technical Society of the Pacific Coast and also of the California Civil Engineers.

Mr. Morgan leaves a widow and six children, Rosa, De Neale, Thomas, Dana, James and Jennie Morgan, who mourn his untimely death.

WOMEN HOLD REGULAR MEETING.

After a two months' adjournment the Young Women's Christian Association resumed its monthly meetings yesterday afternoon.

The following communication from the Woman's Civic Improvement Club of Oakland was read and endorsed after a brief discussion:

"A movement is now in progress to induce people to make all their purchases before 9 o'clock on Saturday evenings, so that stores may be closed at that hour instead of at 10 as at present."

"Upon investigation it has been found that after a hard week's work the fatigue of the last hour is very exhausting."

"When it is taken into account that clerks in retail stores have longer hours than almost any other wage earners, we feel that if the public understood the situation it would make every effort to bring about this much-needed reform."

"Oakland is behind other cities on the coast in this matter. In order to bring about this humane change in hours we must have your help. Therefore, you will not present this to your organization by sending us your written endorsement by early post. Signed, "SARAH C. BORDLAND, President, "BELLE MARSH KLUBGEL, Sec." The secretary was directed to draft a petition as follows to be presented to the Board of Health at its next meeting:

"Several cases of contagious diseases having recently occurred in hotels and private boarding houses, where there was no comfortable way of isolating patients, and, being informed that none of our hospitals would receive those patients, therefore:

"Resolved, That the Young Women's Christian Association petition the Board of Health to provide a suitable place where such patients may be removed and cared for."

PUGILIST SHOT IN BACK.
NEW YORK, August 4.—James (Kid) Leonard, a pugilist, who is employed as a waiter in a Bowery hotel, was shot in the back while walking in the Bowery last night and may die. Diego Caccio, aged 22, a vendor, was arrested after an exciting chase and is charged with the shooting. Mystery is added to the case by the finding of a bloody razor near where Caccio was caught, and the fact that there was blood on the prisoner's hands. Leonard was not cut and as Caccio ran as soon as he fired the shot the police think there may have been another tragedy.

NEGOTIATIONS TO BE RENEWED.

WILL MAKE ANOTHER ATTEMPT TO SECURE PEACE IN PACKING STRIKE.

CHICAGO, August 4.—According to the leaders of the packing house strike, certain powerful influences have been brought to bear on the packers and peace negotiations will probably be renewed tomorrow afternoon between the strikers and their former employers.

The announcement was made by President Schardt of the Federation of Labor and J. J. Keppeler, business agent of the Machinists' Union. Neither Mr. Schardt nor Mr. Keppeler would reveal the identity of the packers but said that the men who are about to intercede were not identified with any of the other peace efforts.

"I am not at liberty to give the names of the parties who are trying to bring about another conference," said President Schardt. "Mr. Keppeler and I conferred with several influential men by appointment and at the solicitation of disinterested parties. Just what they are doing or how many of the packers these gentlemen saw, I do not know. I am convinced that they were successful in a measure from the fact that I was asked if President Donnelly would return to the city soon and if a conference for Friday afternoon could be arranged satisfactorily."

Mr. Keppeler said that President Donnelly would return to the city today and that the matter would be laid before him.

He believes the parties who are trying to bring about another conference mean business," he said. "The labor men will meet them more than half way."

Early today Robert Collins and James Moore of Cleveland, who came here to secure the return of the packing houses, were intercepted by pickets while on their way to the stockyards. Collins was badly beaten, robbed and left unconscious in the street where he was found by a milkman. Moore escaped by running. Frank Polaski, who admits that he was doing picket duty in that locality has been arrested on suspicion of connection with the assault.

STOPPED FROM USING IMITATION LABEL.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., August 4.—Judge O. Wheeler of the Superior Court, has granted an injunction restraining C. H. Morris and son of Danbury from using a label which is alleged to be an infringement upon the label of the Union Hatters of North America. The injunction was granted in the case of Martin Lawler of Danbury, the Union Hatters being an unincorporated association. The Union Hatters are suing the Morris family for using the label in its own name. The labor organization being given a standing before the court and every contention upheld. The matter of a contract between the unions and employers is held to be legal. One of the salient features of the decision is the statement that the union and its constituents are not as injurious as some of the court decisions, the latter being permanent in their effect while the strike and disorder are ephemeral.

FORMED ORGANIZATION.

ST. LOUIS, August 4.—Delegates to the first convocation of the African Grand Encampment of Knights Templar have formed a temporary organization and elected the following officers:

E. D. G. Murray, New Orleans, grand; generalissimo Austin Williams, Memphis; captain, General T. W. McCain, St. Louis; captain, generalissimo, S. W. Brown, New Orleans; senior warden, L. Davis, Davis, Texas; junior warden, C. H. Henderson, St. Louis; treasurer, T. A. Jordan, St. Louis; recorder, H. H. Green, Missouri; warden, J. G. Stevens, St. Louis; sword bearer, Geo. W. ## Escaped An Awful Fate.

Mr. H. Higgins of Melbourne, Fla., writes: "My doctors told me I had Consumption and nothing could be done for me. I was given up to die. The offer of a free trial bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption induced me to try it. Results were startling. I am now on the road to recovery and owe all to Dr. King's New Discovery. It surely saved my life. This great cure is often more desirable than an investment which draws a high rate of interest."

TUSCAN

Mineral Springs, open the year round. To whom it may concern: A year and three months ago I was attacked with that terrible disease, Locomotor Ataxia. I was unable to stand or even sit down entirely lost. Two best doctors of San Francisco and Hot Springs, Ark., failed to help me. My stomach, bowels and kidneys failed to work. I had attacks of stomach, head and bladder as a result of the disease; these troubles became chronic. At times my heart would beat like a drum, my eyes grow weak, my memory bad, my nerves wrecked. Three months ago I went to Tuscan Springs. What happened since was a pleasant surprise to me. I drank the waters, took the baths, after three weeks' treatment stomach, bowels, bladder and kidneys in perfect condition, eyesight perfect, nervousness gone, memory good. After three months' treatment walked without cane, with eyes clear and up and down steep hills; am cured of this dread disease. At times my heart would beat like a drum, my eyes grow weak, my memory bad, my nerves wrecked. Three months ago I went to Tuscan Springs. What happened since was a pleasant surprise to me.
